Great care was taken in developing the list of participants invited to this workshop. Was limiting the attendance to targeted individuals within the IOOS community an effective approach? Please explain.

The majority (82%) of the participants responding felt that the audience “seemed about right” both in size and type. Suggestions included more federal attendees, more end users, and other agencies.

Should more IOOS coordination workshops be held? If so, how frequently? Would you add, delete, or change anything for similar workshops in the future?

The majority (90%) of the participants felt that holding the coordination workshops yearly was appropriate. Additional comments attached.

Excellent organization from CSC.

Logistic arrangements were excellent!! Session 7 represented a missed opportunity to bring the RA's together. Poor directions to the RA's.

Need to focus on RA and federal and state agency partnerships.

Thank you.

Time to visit the Aquarium. We could have worked late one evening.

I still don't have a clear idea of what the RA's are doing – I'd like to hear from them.

Meeting discussions included a number of action items but we left without designated responsibilities and/or timelines....although the closing session helped this. Meeting organization and support was good and, except for internet connection, the meeting venue was terrific.

Specific issues were identified in discussions as crucial for the next steps in the development of IOOS (i.e., identifying pocs for various agencies, developing an IOOS organizational structure, and creating a common song sheet). More time should have been spent in this workshop addressing these issues – we should leave with this in hand, rather than having the same issues come up at the next five workshops. The time could have been used more productively to actually address and decide these issues once and for all while everyone is in the same room.

Internet!

I found that all of the transport to the actual meeting site tiring. In particular, what I mean is, not having the meetings at the hotel with access to our rooms, was a factor. However, holding at the Aquarium was really nice, got us out of the hotel....but it is very tiring to be in all day meetings, then back to the hotel, maybe to go out to dinner. No way around this really in order to have the meeting at this site. Having the NFRA meeting and reception at the hotel was nice. Need a bit more down time. More time at the Aquarium dedicated to tour.

Facilitation and reporting out should be broadened by and NFRA Committee Members. Engaging more RA members more often leads to more leadership. Every RA needs to be engaged in prototype/demonstration/use case development. At the moment this is not the case.

There should be time scheduled in to take advantage of a venue such as the Shedd Aquarium. Choose only 2 – 3- of topics to be accomplished. There is a lot to be done, but progress on a few items is better than leaving several efforts unfinished. If travel is going to happen over any sort of distance field trips should be included. Need to incorporate all learning styles – audio, visual and kinesthetic.
